SPECIFICATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

- This exhibition is open to all two-dimensional and three-dimensional artwork.
- Work must be wholly original and completed only by the artist without assistance from an instructor.
- All work submitted must have been completed after January 1, 2018.

- Work previously submitted in a TRA Show may be submitted as long as it had not received an award from TRA.
- Any photos used for composition, design, etc. must be taken by the artist and not by someone else, including photos found on the internet, in a magazine or from another artist (even with permission). Using photos as references for accuracy of depiction (like animal anatomy for example) taken by someone else is OK so long as the composition of the final artwork is of your creation and not of that photograph.
- Work must be completed outside of a workshop or class setting, without the supervision of an instructor.
- Artwork must be suitably framed with wood, metal or plastic and well reinforced, and must be wired for hanging. Canvases will be accepted without a frame, but sides must be finished (gallery wrapped) with no staples showing. Screw eyes and wire or similar hardware must be used, and should be placed between one-quarter and one-third from the top of the 2-dimension piece. For media requiring glazing, plexiglass is encouraged. Glass will be accepted, but TRA will not be responsible for breakage and will not compensate the artist for any damage.
- Three-Dimensional work must be able to hung on the wall with secure wiring or be able to placed on a pedestal and remain stable.
- Each piece must be for sale.
- Maximum dimensions (in H, W or D individually, including frames): 40 inches - this will be strictly enforced.
- Categories are: Oil, acrylic, watercolor, photography (including digital art), pastel and other media (including three-dimensional works).
